THE BARCLAY GROUP AND PALISADES CONTRIBUTE TO WESTFIELD FRIENDS SCHOOL

RIVERTON, NJ— Local independent insurance agency, The Barclay Group with the help of Palisades Safety and Insurance Management Corporation, recently made a $1,000 donation to the Westfield Friends School.

Westfield Friends School offers instruction from pre-kindergarten through eighth grade. The school nurtures the spiritual, emotional, social, and individual growth of its students by developing responsibility and self-discipline in learning. The school's goal is to graduate students who are self-reliant, respectful of themselves and others, and in possession of academic skills of the highest caliber.

"At the Westfield Friends School education goes beyond the teaching of skills and information," said John Latimer, President of The Barclay Group. "Students are instilled with the qualities of mind and spirit— integrity, equality, stewardship, and concern for others," said Latimer.

Westfield Friends School strives to achieve academic excellence and to cultivate personal and social values among students and staff. The school shares and seeks to impart long-standing commitments to peaceful resolution of conflicts and the continuing disclosure of truth through individual experience.

"The school strives to bring out individuality and develop creative thinkers and humanitarians who will contribute responsible leadership throughout their lives," said Latimer.

John Latimer is a member of the Palisades Agent Advisory Council.

About The Barclay Group

The Barclay Group was established in 1945 and has been serving the insurance needs of businesses, families, contractors, public entities and emergency squads continuously during that time. Today, The Barclay Group has grown to nine offices in four counties to become one of the largest and most trusted professional independent insurance agents in New Jersey. The Barclay Group is a firm of proven professionals with caring and conscientious people; the kind of people clients can depend on. Its staff has a commitment to maintain the highest standard of excellence in everything they do and establish a solid relationship of mutual trust and service with every client. The firm's success is attributed to working with all types of insureds in evaluating risk, and assisting in the development of a good risk management strategy. Since 1999, customers have voted The Barclay Group Burlington County's BEST Insurance Agency and Gloucester County's BEST since 2006.
